

2022-23 SEAL OF BILITERACY TESTING

Department of World Languages Seal of Biliteracy

From Department of World Languages
Alma Reyes, Supervisor of World Languages & ESL
areyes@mtsd.us

Dear Senior World Languages students, other Senior polyglots and families,

The World Languages Department officially opens the window for administer qualifying tests for senior students to earn the coveted

New Jersey Seal of Biliteracy between November 15 - January 15.

Language proficiency is assessed via

- Standards-Based Assessment & Measurement of Proficiency (STAMP)
Remote test proctoring will be used for students not enrolled in WL classes.
- ACTFL Latin Interpretive Reading Assessment (ALIRA)
Detailed information about ALIRA testing for Latin will come through your Latin teacher.
- ALTA Language Services
For low-Density and other languages through the ELL teacher. Info through Supervisor.

Proficiency testing for seniors enrolled in MHS French, German, Spanish and Latin classes will be administered by the MHS Department of World Languages.

Students not enrolled in MHS World Languages classes must follow instructions to register and schedule for the STAMP 4S & WS. Available Languages.

Nov 14 - 18: Students in MHS WL Courses: Students in World Language classes will be tested during their regularly scheduled class period at no additional cost.

Nov 15 - Jan 15: Non-WL Students: Students not currently enrolled in World Language classes, or students wishing to test additional languages, must register for an online test. The price for the tests will be $22.90 for all the languages except Hebrew which costs $59.90. The price of Remote Proctoring will be an additional $15.

Registration Instructions.

TEST ASAP! ALL STUDENTS MUST COMPLETE THE TEST BEFORE JANUARY 15.

Students must take the test as soon as possible to allow time to reschedule in case of unforeseen challenges.

Seal of Biliteracy results will be viewable via Genesis in early Spring.